

Guide to Accessing and Selecting Journal Articles

1. Go to the SOCI 4540 Library Guide -> Journals page: <https://guides.library.unt.edu/soci4540>

The screenshot displays the University Libraries website. The top navigation bar includes the UNT logo and links for HOME, ABOUT, RESEARCH, SERVICES, SPACES, NEWS, CALENDAR, ASK US, and ACCOUNTS LOGIN. The breadcrumb trail indicates the current location: University Libraries / Guides / SOCI 4540: Race And Ethnic Minorities / Intro.

2. From the Journals page, select any of the journal titles listed – they are grouped by broad subjects so pick one that sounds interesting to you. In this example, we will use American Sociological Review:

The screenshot shows a web browser window with the URL guides.library.unt.edu/soci4540/journals. The page features a green header with the UNT logo and the title "University Libraries 4540: Race and Ethnic Minorities". A search bar is located on the right. A left sidebar contains a navigation menu with the following items: Intro, Module Readings and Activities, Journals (highlighted), ASA Style Guides & Writing Resources, Reference Sources, Websites, Books, Articles (Databases), Films & PPR, and Welcome | About the MC. The main content area is titled "Sociology e-Journal titles for SOCI 4540 Research Summaries". It includes an "Important note" stating that while links are provided for the Discover Library Catalog, the "UNT Libraries e-journals page will have the most up to date coverage for each e-journal (online journal)" but lacks individual links. Below this, a section titled "Journals focused on research in race, ethnicity, and immigration" lists several journals: Ethnic and Racial Studies, Ethnicities, Du Bois Review, International Migration Review, Journal of Ethnic and Migration Studies, and Sociology of Race and Ethnicity. A second section, "General sociology journals", lists: American Sociological Review (highlighted with a red box), American Journal of Sociology, Social Forces, Social Problems, Sociological Forum, The Sociological Quarterly, Sociological Perspectives, and Social Psychology Quarterly. A small note at the bottom of the sidebar indicates "Collaboration with Dr. Phoebe Ho, Sociology Department, UNT."

Important note:
The links below are for the Discover Library Catalog which is frequently updated as coverage changes, but UNT Libraries e-journals page will have the most up to date coverage for each e-journal (online journal) but there are not individual links available for this tool.

Journals focused on research in race, ethnicity, and immigration

- Ethnic and Racial Studies
- Ethnicities
- Du Bois Review
- International Migration Review
- Journal of Ethnic and Migration Studies
- Sociology of Race and Ethnicity

General sociology journals (these will cover a variety of sociological topics but you can often find articles related to race and ethnicity)

- American Sociological Review
- American Journal of Sociology
- Social Forces
- Social Problems
- Sociological Forum
- The Sociological Quarterly
- Sociological Perspectives
- Social Psychology Quarterly

- Once you have selected a journal, you will see all the access options for that journal available through UNT Libraries. Coverage periods will vary – if you are interested in the most recent research, pick an access link that covers the present period. In this case, the SAGE Journals access option has the most up-to-date coverage, so we will select that. NOTE: The name of the journal is American Sociological Review NOT SAGE Journals (which is the access link).

- Clicking the SAGE Journals access option takes you web-access for issues of the American Sociological Review journal. The issues you have access to will be shown. You can choose to browse through the latest issues for articles that are of interest or you can do a keyword search within the journal for topics you are specifically interested in (for example Asian American”). To do this, go to the search bar at the top (make sure “search this journal” is selected so that you stay within this journal – otherwise, you might get results from all available journals):

- Once you have selected an article you are interested in, you will see the various access options you have. In this case, you can read the article online in HTML or download it as a PDF.

7. Once you have selected an article, make sure you cite it appropriately. Remember, the journal title I selected is the American Sociological Review. SAGE Journals is a publisher NOT a journal. A web link is also not a sufficient citation. Relevant information to include is circled below. Your citation should be in ASA Style (on Canvas as well):

https://www.asanet.org/sites/default/files/savvy/documents/teaching/pdfs/Quick\_Tips\_for\_ASA\_Style.pdf
